TEMECULA VALLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

To implement the Temecula Cultural Arts Master Plan, it was suggested that a historical organization be formed to preserve the enormous amount of history, historical sites and assets in the Temecula Valley. It should be of great interest to everyone living in the area.

On January 11, 2001, it was decided to form the Temecula Valley Historical Society. Officers were elected and the Society was incorporated as a nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation. Tax deductible status is in Process through the courtesy of Alhadeff and Solar, LLP.

The PURPOSE of this organization is to identify, promote and preserve the historic legacy of the Temecula Valley and to educate the public as to its significance.

Officers of the group are Eve Craig, President, Darell Farnbach, 1st Vice President; Martha Minkler, 2nd Vice President, Bill Harker, CFO, Vice President and Treasurer, Raul Herrera, Vice Pres./Assistant Treasurer, Charolette Fox, Acting Recording Secretary; Carol Marsden and Charolette Fox, Corresponding Secretaries. Directors at Large are Keith Johnson, Budget, Bruce Singer, Publicity; and Ben Masiel, Coordinator. Committee Chairs are Darell Farnbach, Research & Preservation, Charolette Fox, Development; Eve Craig, Events; Wendell Ott, Education; Dick Fox, Mailings; Carol Marsden & Pat Mauter, Telephone; Bill Harker, Membership and Newsletters, Carol Marsden, Nominating.

It is an exciting adventure with Wendell Ott of the Temecula Valley Museum, and his committee, providing fascinating lectures, classes, workshops and arranging tours.
